CONFIDENT COMMUNICATION FOR LIFE

Talk About The Future Express

Years 11 – 13

Half-day Workshop

Leaving school to enter the world of work, further training or education is both an exciting and daunting time. The prospect of independence can be overwhelming.

This is a half-day confident communication workshop geared towards students in Year 11 and above. Within this workshop each student will speak in front of their peers at east three times – with each talk being focused around the transition into life beyond school.
